

References

- 3,000 March in Tulip Parade. The Bellingham Herald. May 11, 1923.
- 3,000 Persons See Whatcom Bulbs. The Bellingham Herald. April 6, 1914.
- 60,000 Line Streets to See Gorgeous Tulip Festival Parade. The Bellingham Herald. May 11, 1928.
- Aletta is Crowned Queen of Tulip Town by Father Time. The Bellingham Herald. May 5, 1922.
- Barrett, Eldon. Author Explores Colorful History of Flower Bulbs and Growers in Washington, Whatcom County. The Bellingham Herald. September 6, 1993.
- Barrett, Eldon. Ski to Sea Roots Stretch 75 Years to Tulip Festival. The Bellingham Herald. May 14, 1995.
- Beautiful Floats Receive Praise of Throng. The Bellingham Herald. May 10, 1929.
- Bellingham Dons Gala Dress for Big Tulip Festival. The Bellingham Herald. April 30, 1921.
- Blossom Time Festival Had Beginning with Tulip Raising Half Century Ago. The Bellingham Herald. April 4, 1957.
- Blossom Changes Name. The Bellingham Herald. December 31, 1999.
- 'Blossom Time' Is Festival Name. The Bellingham Herald. Mar 19, 1947.
- Blossom Festival Opens Here with Many Events. The Bellingham Herald. May 20, 1947.
- Blossom Time Titleist. The Bellingham Herald. March 30, 1947.
- Blossom Time Queen to Have Try at Miss America Title. The Bellingham Herald. February 8, 1948.
- Brilliant Electrical Pageant to Be Festival Feature Tonight. The Bellingham Herald. May 11, 1929.
- Brilliant Electrified Pageant Tonight. The Bellingham Herald. May 7, 1927.
- Brock, Rod. Bellingham, WA - the Original 'Tulip Town' of the Northwest. The Ham. July 11, 2013. Wordpress. Accessed 4/2023 <https://hamtopia.wordpress.com/2013/07/11/bellingham-wa-the-original-tulip-town-of-the-northwest/>
- Bulb Culture Offers Fine Profits. The Bellingham Herald. November 19, 1911.
- The Bulb Farm. The Show Window. 1921.
- Bulb Farm Deal is Now Complete. The Bellingham Herald. May 12, 1908.
- Bulb Farm is Complete Success. The Bellingham Herald. March 26, 1909.
- Bulb Farm will Again Be Scene of Splendor Today. The Bellingham Herald. May 1, 1910.
- Bulb Gardens are Now in Their Glory. The Bellingham Herald. April 24, 1909.
- Bulb Gardens Pictured for 'Movies.' The Bellingham Herald. April 16, 1914.
- Bulb Industry Bulbs Will Not Be Damaged by Snow. The Bellingham Herald. February 14, 1921.

Bulb Men Protest; Lifting of Quarantine on Imports Hurts State Growers. The Bellingham Herald. May 12, 1930.

Bulb Shipments of County Reduced by Ravages of Frosts. The Bellingham Herald. Sep 19, 1930.

Bulbs by Carload - or Trainload. The Bellingham Herald. September 26, 1930.

Carnival Attracts. The Bellingham Herald. The Bellingham Herald. May 5, 1927.

Carnival Defended. The Bellingham Herald. May 20, 1929.

Carnival Issue Up. The Bellingham Herald. Mar 4, 1930.

Carnival is Coming: Levitt-Brown-Huggins Show Here for Festival. The Bellingham Herald. April 24, 1926.

Carnival Opposed: Ministers Pass Resolution. The Bellingham Herald. Jul 21, 1930.

Carnival to Come: Council Agrees to Festival Request - Protests Heard. The Bellingham Herald. Mar 11, 1930.

Carnivals Opposed. The Bellingham Herald. May 27, 1924.

Carnival Question is Referred to Chamber. The Bellingham Herald. Mar 18, 1930.

Chamber of Commerce Will Select Site. The Bellingham Herald. May 25, 1906.

City Jail Crowded; Thirty-Two Arrested - Many Forgot Volstead. The Bellingham Herald. May 10, 1926.

City to Have Festival in 1947. The Bellingham Herald. December 11, 1946.

Clover Tract to Be Site of Bulb Farm. The Bellingham Herald. October 24, 1907.

Decision is Delayed: Chamber Board Postpones Action of Tulip Festival. The Bellingham Herald. August 5, 1930.

Decision Withheld: Tulip Festival Group is Preparing Secret Report. The Bellingham Herald. July 30, 1930.

Do You Remember Tulip Festival? The Bellingham Herald. May 24, 1939.

Donovan, Opposing Carnival, Feature of Tulip Festival, is Willing to Join with Other Citizens in Contributing $2000. The Bellingham Herald. Mar 17, 1930

Five Million Trees to Be Grown at Bulb Farm. The Bellingham Herald. May 28, 1936.

Frost Covers City. The Bellingham Herald. April 5, 1929.

Frost Does Not Do Any Damage, States Marietta Observer. The Bellingham Herald. March 23, 1929.

George Gibbs, Bulb Pioneer, Is Called. The Bellingham Herald. March 15, 1919.

George Gibbs Will Lecture on Bulbs. The Bellingham Herald. April 21, 1913.

Good Crop Produced at Government Bulb Farm. The Bellingham Herald. August 22, 1933.

Gorgeous Parade Thrills 50,000. The Bellingham Herald. May 6, 1927.

Gorgeous Spring Festival Pageant Thrills Crowd of More Than 3000. The Bellingham Herald. May 24, 1939.

Government Bulb Farm Here to Be Converted Into Tree Nursery With Experiments to Combat Soil Erosion. The Bellingham Herald. May 20, 1936.

Government Bulb Farm Will Be Show Place of Bellingham Today. The Bellingham Herald. April 17, 1910.

Government Will Soon Establish Bulb Garden for Experimental Purposes in Bellingham. The Bellingham Herald. May 25, 1906.

Helgoe, Gayle. Early History of Flower Bulb Farming in Whatcom County. Journal of the Whatcom County Historical Society, Number eight, December 2008.

Here's Tulip Festival Song That's Real Snappy. The Bellingham Herald. April 6, 1920

Hundreds Visit U.S. Bulb Farm. The Bellingham Herald. April 17, 1911.

Ideal Home of the Holland Bulb. The Bellingham Herald. December 16, 1905.

Insider's Guide to Sea to Ski. The Bellingham Herald. May 15, 1991.

Inspects Sites for Bulb Farm. The Bellingham Herald. July 3, 1906.

Jasmin, Ernest A. Parading Through the Years. The Bellingham Herald. May 14, 1998.

Keeping the Spirit Alive. The Bellingham Herald. May 9, 1930.

Klan and Chaperone Questions Undecided by Festival Cabinet. The Bellingham Herald. April 28, 1926.

Klan Parade Held. The Bellingham Herald. May 17, 1926.

Lively Lilt Wanted. Catchy Tulip Song for Festival Sought by Weir. Bellingham Herald. April 2, 1920

Many Here for Final Tulip Festival Events. The Bellingham Herald. May 11, 1929.

Mayor Kellogg Places Crown on Brow of Queen Gena in Presence of 4500. The Bellingham Herald. May 11, 1928.

Millions of Bulbs Will Be Planted. The Bellingham Herald. September 23, 1909.

Miss Alta Pittman Wins Tulip Song Contest. The Bellingham Herald. April 21, 1920.

Miss America. Wikipedia. Wikimedia Foundation, May 2, 1923.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Miss_America

Movie Men Coming. Operators Will Film Coronation of Tulip Queen Aletta. The Bellingham Herald. April 27, 1922.

New Bulb Farm to Be Cleared at Once. The Bellingham Herald. April 27, 1916.

Northwest Blossom Time Festival Announcement, Awards and Prizes. The Bellingham Herald. March 28, 1948.

Official Program for Tulip Festival, Beginning with Coronation Thursday, Shows Every Hour Optimist Club Hears Explanations of the Carnival Profession. The Bellingham Herald. May 9, 1929.

Orcas' George Gibbs Was Father of State's Bulb Industry. The Sounder. Reprinted from The Spindrift magazine, Spring, 1996, page 29. Accessed 4/2023 at:

<https://sites.rootsweb.com/~wasigs/SOUNDER0803GeoGibbs.htm>

Packed with Events. The Bellingham Herald April 27, 1927.

Parades Take Spotlight in Blossomtime Climax. The Bellingham Herald. May 17, 1974.

Passing of 'Burbank of Clearbrook' Deeply Mourned by Friends. The Bellingham Herald. March 17, 1919.

Plans for Big Tulip Festival are Complete. The Bellingham Herald. April 29, 1920.

Policy is Changed; Free Distribution of Local Bulbs to Stop. The Bellingham Herald. August 6, 1935.

Queen Elizabeth Gets Her Ticket for European Trip. The Bellingham Herald. July 2, 1926.

Queen Ruth Off for Hollywood. The Bellingham Herald. May 12, 1929.

Queen of Tulip Land and Her Maids. The Bellingham Herald. May 8, 1925.

Roth, Lottie Roeder History of Whatcom County pp. 782-783

Rules for Queen Contest, Tulip Festival. The Bellingham Herald. March 26, 1923.

Scepter of Authority in Tulipland is Granted to Queen Violet by Mayor. The Bellingham Herald. May 8, 1925.

The Site for the Government Bulb Garden Has Been Selected. The Bellingham Herald. March 7, 1908.

Ski to Sea Race for Blossom Time Planned. The Bellingham Herald. March 9, 1973.

Ski to Sea Race Draws More Interest. The Bellingham Herald. May 26, 1975.

Ski to Sea Race Revives Marathon. The Bellingham Herald. April 29, 1973.

Ski to Sea Race will Expand to Include Sailboat Leg. The Bellingham Herald. April 20, 1980.

Thousands Will Take Part in Tulip Parade. The Bellingham Herald. April 29, 1920.

Tulip. Wikipedia. Wikimedia Foundation, April 26, 2023. <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tulip>

Tulip Festival Abandoned but Annual Spring Fete of Schools will Continue. The Bellingham Herald. Mar 19, 1930.

Tulip Festival Cabinet is Divided on K.K.K. Problem; Members Threaten to Quit. The Bellingham Herald. April 29, 1926.

Tulip Festival is Opened; 5000 to March in Parade Two Miles Long Tomorrow. The Bellingham Herald. May 4, 1922.

Tulip Festival Opens. The Bellingham Herald. May 10, 1923.

Tulip Festival Opens, The Bellingham Herald. May 7, 1925.

Tulip Festival to Close with Fireworks. The Bellingham Herald. May 8, 1926.

Tulip Fete Will Formally Open Monday. The Bellingham Herald. April 30, 1921.

Tulip Mania https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tulip_mania

Tulip Parade is Blaze of Color. The Bellingham Herald. May 5, 1922.

Tulip Parade is Glow of Color. The Bellingham Herald. May 2, 1924.

Tulip Song Chosen. The Bellingham Herald. April 8, 1925.

Tulipmania was Local 1920's Delight. The Bellingham Herald. March 26, 1965.

Tulips By Truckload: Uncle Sam to Help Make Bellingham Real 'Tulip Town.' The Bellingham Herald. April 29, 1920.

Uncle Sam Interested in Puget Sound Flowers. The Bellingham Herald. May 26, 1906.

Wanzer Opposed to Carnival to Assist Tulip Celebration. The Bellingham Herald. May 16, 1929.

Weir to Plan Tulip Festival for City. Bellingham Herald. March 12, 1920.

Whatcom Schools Plant Bulbs, Gift of George Gibbs. The Bellingham Herald. May 3, 1921.

Where Genuine Holland Bulbs Are Raised; Whatcom County the Birthplace of Tulips Sold as Dutch Plants in Europe. The Bellingham Herald. May 6, 1905.

Whole Northwest Likes Tulip Festival. The Bellingham Herald. May 8, 1929.

Willys-Knight is Featured at Tulip Festival. The Seattle Star. May 12, 1926.